Day 6 Apr 07 – Guilin – Hong Kong

Reed Flute Cave

Enjoy your early morning breakfast in the hotel, journey to Reed Flute Cave, a landmark and major attraction in Guilin. This natural limestone cave contains multi-coloured lighting, over 180 million years old, the name originates from the type of reed growing outside which can be developed into melodious flutes. Peruse the natural stalactites, stalagmites and rock formations.

Tour continues with Elephant Trunk Hill, located on the western bank of Li River, the shape of the hill is similar to a huge elephant drinking water from the river with its trunk, hence the name.

Shui Yue Cave (Water Moon Cave) is located between the trunk and legs; a semi-round cave penetrated by water, the inverted reflection in the water forms a full moon.

Your private tour ends with Fubo Hill, tucked away in the northeast part of the city by Li River, comprised on an exquisite peak rising high half in water and half on land. Local tale involves a man known as General Fubo of the Han Dynasty once passed by Guilin on a southern expedition, he poured all the pearls he carried into the river, since then the hill was named after him in his memory.
