Day 04 Hoi An – Hue

Enjoy breakfast in the comfort of your hotel, you will be driven to Hue (approx. 50mins) via the gorgeous and famed Vietnam coastline, see panoramic views as Hai Van Pass. On the way, stop at the top for a quick look around before heading down the other side where you will reach Lang Co, riding through little village and along the beach to photo stops. Follow the coastline to Hue. Hotel transfer, check-in and relax at Hotel Ana Mandara.

Hai Van Pass

In the late afternoon you will be transferred to the Royal Dinner Restaurant, a traditional restaurant where you will be given colourful imperial costumes so you can dress up as Emperors and Queens. You will be entertained by traditional Hue Imperial Court music and served a multiple course meal in the royal tradition of the Imperial Court. Each dish is exquisitely prepared to symbolize the dragon, phoenix and peacock. A truly unique experience.

Optional Evening Foodie & Cyclo Tour

Cyclo Tour

Explore Hue's slow living through a slow ride by cyclo! Join the team on an easy night out, tasting some typical Hue delicacies, experiencing local eating habits and learning some easy Vietnamese expressions that will accompany you through time. When the streets are poetically lit up, you are welcomed with a hang-out at a charming bar. Enjoy a tasty drink, light finger food. Your guide will give some basic introduction about local cuisine before moving to a vegetarian restaurant, where you can see Buddhist traditions imprinted in Hue's food art.

Farther and farther away from the tourist quarter, in a laid-back cyclo, the night tranquillity will show you the inner soul of a former Imperial city. Suddenly, then street food stalls come into sight with their exciting sounds and appealing smells to tease your appetite, and a crispy Hue styled pancake or lemongrass skewers will be worth a try. Sweet soups may not be your favourite dessert, but the varieties of colours and flavours, especially the roasted pork dumpling in syrup, will be a promise of a sweet ending for a sweet night!

Hotel transfer, overnight Ana Mandara.

Day 05 Hue – Ho Chi Minh

Hotel breakfast, you will be picked-up at 8:30 AM and escorted to your Boat Cruise along the romantic Perfume River to visit Thien Mu Pagoda, one of the most ancient architectural structures in Hue. Visit the splendid Imperial City where the Nguyen Dynasty ruled from 1802 to 1945. Visit the elaborate mausoleums of emperors Tu Duc and Khai Dinh followed by a conical hat and incense stick-making workshop.

Perfume River
