Day 6 Naples – Rome – Hong Kong

Pompeii

Check out and head to Rome, stopping at the ruins of Pompeii on the way. Visit this bustling seaside city that was buried underneath ash and volcanic debris after the eruption of Mount Vesuvius.

The ash acted as an archaeological time capsule by preserving many of the city's original buildings and features completely intact.

The city was lost for 1,500 years following Mount Vesuvius' eruption before its accidental rediscovery in 1599. Items from jars to furniture were frozen in time, and even people who were unable to flee the oncoming ash were perfectly preserved.

The guided Walking Tour (approx. 2hrs) of Pompeii's ancient streets will show off preserved villas, shops, public buildings, and plazas, giving you an insider's look into life 2,000 years ago. Tour stops include the House of Gladiators, large manors and villas, the Temple of Isis, and the Garden of the Fugitives where you can see plasters of several of the victims of the volcanic

House of Gladiators

After lunch, head to Villa de Este (approx. 2.5hrs). Villa d'Este grounds include a masterpiece of Italian garden design with an amazing concentration of fountains, nymphaea, grottoes, water themes and an organ which produces audible effects created by water.

Transfer to Rome Airport (FCO) for your onward flight to Hong Kong (HKG).
